

March on the RNC and Stop the War

September 1, 2008 - St Paul, MN
Rally at the State Capitol | March to the Xcel Center

U.S. Out of Iraq Now!

Money for human needs, not for war * Say no to the Republican Agenda * Demand peace, justice & equality

On September 1, 2008, the whole world will be watching as the Republicans meet to nominate their next candidate for president. We must take to the streets of St. Paul to raise our voices against the war and the occupation of Iraq. Theft, torture and murder are part and parcel of the war in Iraq. These politicians do not represent us. They cut programs that serve our needs at home, and blame the most exploited for our hardships.

In 2008, it's up to us - anyone committed to peace, justice, and equality - to stand up and say no. During the four-day Republican National Convention, every progressive movement will be raising demands in protests on the streets of St. Paul.

The Republicans picked Minnesota, betting that activists from around the country would just stay home. Politicians who support the continuing war in Iraq hope that we will stay quiet. Let's prove them wrong in the streets of St. Paul, Minnesota. Together, we can change the world.

Pack the Courtroom! * Friday 5/16 @ 1pm in front of Federal Courthouse, 4th St., Mpls. * St. Paul city officials have not yet granted permits for the march on September 1. A federal judge will consider our case, and we want supporters there.

Rally & March: Stand Up for the Right to March on the RNC to Stop the War!
* Tuesday 7/1 @ 11am @ State Capitol * Regular marches before September 1 are part of a legal strategy to secure permits for the Sept. 1 march.

Coalition to March on the RNC and Stop the War
marchonrnc.org | 612.234.8774

The Coalition to Stop the War and March on the RNC: Anti-War Committee (MN); Twin Cities Peace Campaign - Focus on Iraq; ANSWER Coalition; Latinos Against War (Los Angeles); Troops Out Now Coalition; United for Peace and Justice; and others.

March on the RNC and Stop the War

September 1, 2008 - St Paul, MN
Rally at the State Capitol | March to the Xcel Center

U.S. Out of Iraq Now!

Money for human needs, not for war * Say no to the Republican Agenda * Demand peace, justice & equality

On September 1, 2008, the whole world will be watching as the Republicans meet to nominate their next candidate for president. We must take to the streets of St. Paul to raise our voices against the war and the occupation of Iraq. Theft, torture and murder are part and parcel of the war in Iraq. These politicians do not represent us. They cut programs that serve our needs at home, and blame the most exploited for our hardships.

In 2008, it's up to us - anyone committed to peace, justice, and equality - to stand up and say no. During the four-day Republican National Convention, every progressive movement will be raising demands in protests on the streets of St. Paul.

The Republicans picked Minnesota, betting that activists from around the country would just stay home. Politicians who support the continuing war in Iraq hope that we will stay quiet. Let's prove them wrong in the streets of St. Paul, Minnesota. Together, we can change the world.

Pack the Courtroom! * Friday 5/16 @ 1pm in front of Federal Courthouse, 4th St., Mpls. * St. Paul city officials have not yet granted permits for the march on September 1. A federal judge will consider our case, and we want supporters there.

Rally & March: Stand Up for the Right to March on the RNC to Stop the War!
* Tuesday 7/1 @ 11am @ State Capitol * Regular marches before September 1 are part of a legal strategy to secure permits for the Sept. 1 march.

Coalition to March on the RNC and Stop the War
marchonrnc.org | 612.234.8774

The Coalition to Stop the War and March on the RNC: Anti-War Committee (MN); Twin Cities Peace Campaign - Focus on Iraq; ANSWER Coalition; Latinos Against War (Los Angeles); Troops Out Now Coalition; United for Peace and Justice; and others.